Tokyo, Japan

Dear Mr. Kato,

We would like to express our heartfelt gratitude for your insightful speech at the UNECE International Forum on People-first PPPs for the Sustainable Development Goals on 9-11 May 2017 at City University of Hong Kong (CityU).

We believe that the unique experiences and knowledge you have shared with us all will help immensely in the development, implementation as well as promoting best practices of people-first PPP projects. We appreciate that you have spared your precious time and travelled a long way to visit and shared with us in Hong Kong. We hope that you have enjoyed the Forum, found the discussions enlightening and fruitful, and also got new ideas back home.

Once again, thank you so much for being part of the Forum. Your presence and expert input have contributed greatly to the excellence and richness of the event.
